General Cabell (Continued):

Central Intelligence Cross, Central Intelligence Medal, etc.
After some discussion the original proposal was approved. In connection with the National Security Medal, General Cabell also noted consideration was being given to recommending an additional medal to be awarded by the President for outstanding acts of valor in the intelligence field. The Director said he was sympathetic to this but would prefer to hold in abeyance his decision for the time being.

Mr. Wisner:

Referred to the rumor that the Soviets were shipping A-bombs in boxes to Guatemaa, and asked if such a thing is possible.
Mr. Amory noted that the odds were 999 to 1 against success.

Mr. Amory:

Reported that General Cutler had raised the question of the Director meeting with Admiral Radford in connection with net estimates. Mr. Amory said he had advised General Cutler he was not aware of any request from Admiral Radford for a second meeting on this subject. The Director said this was correct and that the onus was on Admiral Radford to call such a meeting.

Mr. Kirkpatrick: 25X1 Reported the Senate had passed a bill for the establishment of a Commissioner for Refugees, noting that the bill is very 25X1 his concern and asked to initially discuss problems 25X1 inherent in this bill with 25X1 Mr. 25X1 БX1 25X1 Reported he had discussed CIA/FBI cooperation in the 25X1 with Sam Papich and had been informed that the Bureau was completely satisfied with their relations with us in this activity and, in fact, it represented one of our to so25X1 closest working arrangements.
